Dear Mr. Luntz:

The purpose of this letter is to remind you of the closing remark you made in your letter of June 17th--namely,

You will be hearing further from me later.

Since I have not heard from you since then, I felt a reminder would be in order.

You may also be interested to know that the originators of the Argonne letter have never seen fit to send me a copy of their complaints. Moreover, they have also let it be known that their principle complaint was simply that I did not do what I promised to do, whereas I am well aware that their letter charged me with serious errors. For that reason, I would be pleased to have you publish their letter even if you would refuse to give me space to answer their complaints. Based on the mail I have received, I think the interested reader will be able to judge for himself that their charge of errors is without foundation.

Sincerely yours,

Eugene F. Adiutori
